725/5

McGILL COLLEGE.

M. D. C. M. FINAL EXAMINATIONS, 1877–78.

MEDICAL JURISPRUDENCE.

TUESDAY, 26TH MARCH, 3 TO 5 P. M.

Examiner.....Professor WILLIAM GARDNER, M.D.

1. Give the symptoms, course, terminations, prognosis and legal relations of Acute Mania. Give also the legal relations of Delirium Tremens and Drunkenness.

2. Enumerate the various duties of the medical man when called to see the body of a person found dead under suspicious circumstances.

3. Enumerate the causes of sudden natural death.

4. Describe fully the methods most recently proposed for the diagnosis of human from animal blood.

5. What is the cause of death in hanging, strangulation, suffocation and drowning respectively?

6. Describe the symptoms, ordinary and exceptional, of Opium-poisoning; mention the diseases with which it may be confounded, and state the main points of difference.